The Ocean County Republican Finance Committee, Inc:

Please be advised that Executive Order #134 (effective October 15, 2004) applies to contributions to the Ocean County Republican Finance Committee (OCRFC). Vendors doing or seeking to do business with the State of New Jersey may be prohibited (including owners of 10% or more of assets or profits). In compliance with the Executive Order, the OCRFC can accept contributions up to $300 from individuals and corporations. Please see Executive Order 134 for further information.

New Jersey election law allows contributions with a limit of $37,000 annually from individuals, PAC's and corporations, except from those industries regulated by the State of New Jersey. A partnership may contribute the maximum of $37,000 per partner annually. A letter allocating the contribution to the individual partner(s) must accompany the check. The letter must include each contributing partner's address. A partner's total contribution, through the partnership and personally, cannot exceed the $37,000 annual limit.

New Jersey election law requires we collect the name, address, employer, employer's address and occupation for every individual whose aggregate contributions exceed $300 in a calendar year.

SOC R PAC

New Jersey election law allows contributions with a limit of $7,200 annually from individuals, PAC's and corporations, except from those industries regulated by the State of New Jersey. A partnership may contribute the maximum of $7,200 per partner annually. A letter allocating the contribution to the individual partner(s) must accompany the check. The letter must include each contributing partner's address. A partner's total contribution, through the partnership and personally, cannot exceed the $7,200 annual limit.

Contributions to SOC R PAC are not prohibited by Executive Order #134. SOC R PAC is a Political Action Committees that raises funds to help candidates through direct funding or campaign assistance. The PAC does not contribute to the State Committee, County Committee or Municipal Committee accounts, which are impacted by Executive Order #134. Donating to SOC R PAC does not ban you from receiving State contracts.

Contributions are not tax deductible.
