SAVE THE DATE: Van Drew Joins the Trump Campaign in Announcing President Trump's Historic Return to New Jersey

President Trump's New Jersey Campaign Chairman, United States Congressman Jeff Van Drew, joined the Trump campaign in announcing that President Trump will be returning to Wildwood, New Jersey, on Saturday, May 11th, for another historic campaign rally.

"President Trump holding a rally on the beach in Wildwood will be like nothing New Jersey has ever seen," said United States Congressman Jeff Van Drew. "People are still talking about the energy and excitement around President Trump's rally in January of 2020 which still holds the record for the most tickets ever requested. We have no doubt that this rally will be ever bigger and better."

The Trump campaign will be announcing more details in the weeks to come including the exact timing and how to request tickets.
